

Invertebrates (No Backbone)

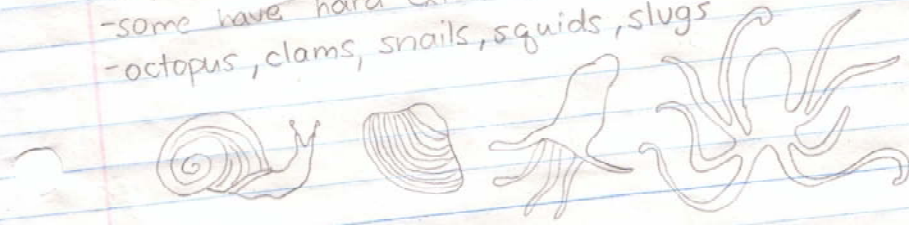

- Sponges

- live permanently attached to a location in the water

- Molluscs

- soft bodies
- some have hard external shell
- octopus, clams, snails, squids, slugs

- Worms

- aerate soil with burrowing action, enrich soil with their waste

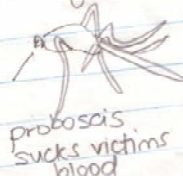

- Arthropods

- hard outer body covering called exoskeleton
- specialized mouth parts
- jointed legs
- compound eyes
- segmented body

- beetle

- mosquito

- spider

- fly

