

Ecosystems

Ecology: Studying the relationships between living organisms and their environment.

Ecosystem: A place where interactions between biotic (living) and abiotic (non-living) things occur.

Living Things:

- are made of cells
- require energy
- grow and develop
- respond to their surroundings
- have adaptations to survive
- produce waste

Exit Slip:

Name 3 biotic and 3 abiotic elements that start with the same letter as your first name.